War Summary

One of the most important battles of the European war continues today east of Paris, along the front of the allied armies, extending from Nanteuil Le Haudouin to Verdun. The Germans in their turning movement have swept through the entire Compeigne country and the five German columns are now burling their strength against the front of the allied forces, which extends for a distance of 140 miles.

The meager news filtering in from the zone of the fighting today indicates that the allies have gained a decided success against the German right wing, which is reported to have suffered heavily attempting to cross the river

A report which was passed by the French and British censors says that 250,000 Russian troops have been landed in France, presumably with the object of flanking the Germans in Belgian territory. In the eastern theater of the war the Russians, following their brilliant success at Lemberg, the capital of Austrian Galicia, are throwing their forces against the first Austrian army which for three days has been desperately trying to break through the Russian line between Lublin and Kholm. Details of the fighting around Lemberg contain the statement that the Russians took $2,000 Austrian prisoners.

On the other hand, advices re ceived from Berlin by the German embassy at Washington, say that the Austrian eastern army advancing on Russian territory, repulsed a violent Russian attack and captured many Russian pris-

Reports from the Balkans say that the Turks are concentrating 80,000 men along the Tchatalja lines, outside Constantinople, with a view to opposing a possible Russian landing on the Black sea coast.

A serious controversy has ocsurred between Emperor William and Chancellor Von Bethmann Hollweg and Minister of Foreign Affairs Von Jagow, according to a newspaper dispatch from Berlin, over the shouldering of responsibility for the isolated diplomatic position in which Germany found itself at the outbreak of the European war.

The people of the United States were asked in a proclamation, signed by President Wilson, to oray for peace in Europe.
